Paragraph .75em

We are designing a webpage for a clothing designer that creates unique clothing of the bohemian variety. This website will be light and airy depicting elements from nature. It will have a fun, casual, eclectic, while camping on a sunny dewy morning feel. We are introducing earth tones of almond and taupe with splashes of honey dew and tea green and images of natural wood, brick, greenery and succulents. Thus creating a bright and earthy feel that will make you want to throw on your favorite flowy sundress and head to the local farmers market.
